

MultiLing Peru Celebrates the Holidays with Three Local Schools

Over the holidays, MultiLing's Peru office visited three schools sharing gifts and snacks with the school's students. MultiLing employees donated the toys that were handed out, as well as pannetone (similar to fruitcake) and chocolate milk.

"We were asked to donate toys and chocolate for the children at these schools. As a result, our manager and coworkers, in a spirit of selfless giving, donated money, clothes and other gifts," mentioned a statement from the Peru office.

Two students at the school, Nuestra Señora de la Candelaria, who received treats and toys from MultiLing Peru.

A student at Centro Educativo 40099 Virgen de Fátima was excited to receive some pannetone and chocolate milk.

At Nuestra Señora de la Candelaria, a school for special needs children, employees visited with over 40 children and adults. The children put on the play "The Three Little Pigs" and gave the employees some hand-made gifts.

At Centro Educativo 40034 Mario Vargas Llosa, Katherine Rodriguez, a first grade teacher, asked MultiLing Peru to help 65 children. MultiLing employees were able to give toys and chocolate milk to the school children as well as clothing and food to 3 needy children.

Students at Centro Educativo 40099 Virgen de Fátima sang and played while they waited in line to receive food and treats from the staff at MultiLing Peru.

The largest group of students was found at Centro Educativo 40099 Virgen de Fátima where the employees visited with 144 children and were able to distribute treats and chocolate milk to all of them. MultiLing employees also donated toys to one class of 22 children.

At all three schools, employees donated food and clothing to needy families that were selected by the school.
